Five Reasons to Study at CME

CME offers a range of specialized Direct Entry programs which are approved by Macquarie University and the Sydney Institute of Business and Technology (SIBT). This enables you to choose the program that best suits your study plans.

By choosing to study English at CME you will:

- Develop skills you need to succeed in Macquarie University's and SIBT's courses, and to enjoy your international experience.
- Experience University life and enjoy feeling a part of the University while you study English.
- Benefit from free extra language support programs provided by CME teachers.
- Learn from highly qualified teachers. Most CME teachers have postgraduate qualifications in teaching English. More than 35% of CME teachers are qualified IELTS examiners.
- Be part of our friendly community of international students. Our staff enjoy organizing social events for our students, and you will be able to make long lasting friendships with other students from around the world.

As a CME student, you will experience much more than an excellent teaching and learning environment!

CME is committed to helping you enjoy your international study experience in Sydney, Australia.
